Alliance Technology Partners IT Services Offered Through the Retex Program

Valley Stream, NY June 5, 2007 – Retex, the nation's largest retail technology and business solutions buying consortium, representing more than 2,400 retail members, announces its partnership with Alliance Technology Partners. Through this partnership, Alliance Technology Partners offers retailers a nationwide IT solution focusing on smart solutions that provide organizations with a radical ROI. From implementing solutions that make your organization more productive to saving your company money with wireless management services, Alliance Technology Partners does it all!

Alliance Technology Partners offers business technology solutions that reduce the cost of doing business. These solutions include Aftermarket Technologies Group providing drastically discounted IT hardware, software, and nationwide IT services; eOnTheGo Group provides wireless management solutions; @task Group – Enterprise-wide Project Management Solution; Alvaka - Advanced Network Management Group is a 24x7x365 proactive network management solution; and hpRefurb.com, one of the largest clearinghouses for HP factory refurbished IT hardware.

Alliance Technology Partners' suite of services offer exciting new programs which will help retailers lower costs and increase efficiencies in this very competitive retail business climate. These services will provide retailers access to onsite IT services, wireless management services, hardware and Network Management solutions previously not available through the Retex program. This coupled with Alliance Technology Partners and Retex' commitment to the retail community makes this new partnership an exciting endeavor.
